

Youth Storyteller Contest – Yellowhead Tribal Council (YTC)

Presented by Child & Family Services (CFS) and Post Secondary Student Support Program (PSSSP)

Theme: Exploring the Significance of Culture, Life Lessons, and Moral Values

Purpose: All stories will be showcased in our exclusive YTC First Nation Child & Youth Storytelling Book, contributing to the promotion and preservation of culture, language, and traditions through the sharing of our knowledge and stories.

Deadline: Friday, April 5, 2024 at 3:00 p.m. MST

Criteria

- Must be a YTC First Nation member
- Must be an original story, handwritten and signed with your name
- Scan your essay using a scanner or phone app (Please use the following links to learn how to scan documents on your iPhone or iPad and scan and edit documents on your Galaxy phone or tablet.)
- Save & send in PDF format.
- Include name, age, phone number, First Nation, address, and signed release form with the submission.
- Parent(s) and Guardian(s): You must complete the online release form (click here to download PDF release form) with your submission. By signing the release form, you consent to use your stories, name and age to be published and reproduced by the Yellowhead Tribal Council.

The poster features the Yellowhead Tribal Council logo at the top center. The title 'YOUTH STORYTELLER CONTEST' is prominently displayed in large white letters. The theme is 'Exploring the Significance of Culture, Life Lessons, and Moral Values'. The poster is divided into three sections for different contest types: Drawing Contest (ages 4-7), Short Story Contest (ages 8-12), and Essay Writing Contest (ages 13-17). Each section lists prizes and submission requirements. A QR code is provided for more information, and the submission email is listed as STORYTELLER@YTCADMIN.CA.
