
Overview

The Yellowhead Tribal Council (YTC) is pleased to announce that the competition for the YTC Youth Award is now open. This award recognizes individuals aged 18 to 35 who positively impact their First Nation. YTC is dedicated to building capacity and empowering the next generation to develop their skills, knowledge, and discipline. If you know a youth who deserves this recognition, we encourage you to nominate them. Additionally, individuals at any stage of their professional journey are welcome to apply for the award on their behalf. The YTC Youth Award recipient will be honoured at the prestigious YTC Gala on Friday, December 13, 2024, at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel West Edmonton. The award winner will enjoy complimentary admission to the event, which will include additional exciting announcements.

Organization Information

YTC is a nonprofit organization dedicated to delivering essential programs and services to its four member Nations: Alexander First Nation, Alexis Nakota Sioux Nation, O'Chiese First Nation, and Sunchild First Nation.

Submission Guidelines

- Nominations will be reviewed anonymously by the selection committee.
- The award recipient will receive complimentary admission to the YTC Gala, with additional announcements to follow.
- If you have any questions or issues submitting your nomination, please email youthcouncil@ytcadmin.ca.
